DETAILED ACTION

The receipt is acknowledged of applicants' preliminary amendment and IDS, both filed 07/09/2003; and second preliminary amendment, filed 11/03/2003.

Claims 1, 16-19, and 21-30 are pending and included in the prosecution.

Specification

1. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.

Art Unit: 1615

- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

2. The use of the trademark "Duro-Tak 87-2052" has been noted in this application. It should be capitalized wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1, 16-19, and 21-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The claims recite the skin contact adhesive layer consisting of clonidine and copolymer consists of 2-ethylhexyl acrylate and vinyl acetate while the example in page 13 uses Duro-Tak 87-2052 and it is not know if the trademark used by applicants consists of copolymer of 2-ethylhexyl acrylate and vinyl acetate only or other ingredients exist. Applicants are required to provide a competent documentation regarding the constituents of the trademark Duro-Tak 87-2052 to meet the written description requirements. Furthermore, with careful recourse to the specification, it appears that the comparative example 2 and the example according to the present invention are identical, i.e. both have the same composition and the comparative example carried out without absorption promoter. It is not clear what the difference in the composition between comparative example 2 and the example according to the present invention that results in the reduced permeation of clonidine as show in Table 2. Regarding claims 16, 17, and 30, the claims recite ranges for the clonidine while the example shows an amount in mg, and it is not clear if the amount used in the examples falls within the claimed ranges.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claim is dependent on claim 1 which has closed language that limits the constituents of the skin contact adhesive layer into clonidine and copolymer consists of 2-ethylhexyl acrylate and vinyl acetate, however, claim 18 broaden the scope of claim 1 by further adding other elements to the skin contact adhesive layer. appropriate correction is requested.
